

Nomination for the 2007 Outstanding Alumni Award – Epsilon Zeta Alumni Association

The Outstanding Alumni Award will be awarded in winter 2008-2009 to one alumnus of the Epsilon Zeta chapter who has shown dedication to service in her/his everyday life. There is no limit on the timeframe of the service activity. Any Epsilon Zeta alumni may nominate or be nominated. Some possible topics to cover in your nomination include (but are not limited to) the nominee's:

- service to the alumni association,
- service to the chapter,
- involvement in community service on any level,
- volunteering resources to help RPI, and
- service to (and through) Alpha Phi Omega on any level (chapter, sectional, regional, national, etc).

Be sure to include the nominee's name and contact information (if known).

Recipients will receive a certificate and their name on a plaque which is displayed in the Epsilon Zeta chapter office. One hundred dollars will also be donated to a charity of their choice on behalf of the alumni association.

Please return nominations (or direct any questions) to Alyssa Pasquale by e-mail at pasqua@alum.rpi.edu or by mail to:

Epsilon Zeta Alumni Association
c/o Alpha Phi Omega
RPI Union Room 3420
Troy, NY 12180

Nominations must be received by November 30th, 2008.

Information about the Outstanding Alumni Award

The Outstanding Alumni Award will be awarded every five years to coincide with EZAA anniversaries on years ending in 2 and 7. The 2007 award is being given out retroactively for our most recent 60th anniversary.

Nominations will be sent to the EZAA and the final decision will be made by the EZAA officers (President, Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, Extension Member and Member-at-Large), as well as past EZAA presidents and the current Epsilon Zeta president. If any member of the decision-making committee is nominated, they will not participate in the decision-making process.
